

WESTERN NEW YORK LIBRARY RESOURCES COUNCIL

Questioning existing practices.
Testing new ideas.
WNYLRC: a leader in library innovation.

Professional Development Services

WNYLRC provides certificates of attendance which are tracked and available on your account page once you have registered on wnylrc.org.

Continuing Education Credits are available for half-day workshops of 2 hours or more, full-day workshops, seminars or institutes sponsored by WNYLRC and held at WNYLRC or other location as specified.

Classes and seminars may be eligible for continuing education credit through the Department of Library and Information Studies at the University at Buffalo. Fill out the registration form to request CEUs.

WNYLRC is an approved Continuing Teacher and Leader Education (CTLE) Sponsor, certified by the New York State Department of Education, Office of Teaching Initiatives.

WNYLRC offers MLA CE credits from courses approved by the Medical Library Association that are available exclusively through the MedLib-Ed portal.

Training Center

Classes may be held at our training center, at off-site locations, or through online webinars. See our schedule on the workshops page. Most classes are open to anyone, but WNYLRC members pay a lower price. To register for a class you must first create an account by clicking on the "Create an account" link at the top of the page and entering the information requested. When your registration is complete you will then be able to register for the above mentioned training opportunities.
