- c. The term of office of the president and vice-president shall be one (1) year. The vice-president shall be president-elect, and shall succeed to the office of president, unless the board of trustees, before the president-elect takes office, decides otherwise.
- d. The term of office of the secretary and treasurer shall be one (1) year. The treasurer may serve continued annual terms at the request of the board. The treasurer need not be a member of the board.
- e. No officer excepting the treasurer shall hold the same position consecutively for more than two (2) years.
- f. Either the secretary or Executive Director may serve as financial clerk in lieu of a staff member (view §90.5 regulations).

Section 5 Board of Trustees Quorum

- a. A simple majority of the whole number of trustees shall be a quorum.

Section 6 Board Meetings

- a. Regular meetings of the Board shall be held no fewer than six (6) times a year as stated in NYS Law 255 Section 3 (c). The officers shall be elected for the forthcoming year during the next meeting of the board following the annual meeting of members.
- b. Other meetings can be called by the president, or at the written request of three (3) trustees.
- c. Notices of all meetings shall be sent by the president or executive director of the Council not less than five (5) days, or more than ten (10) days, before the meeting to the preferred address of each trustee.
- d. Regular meetings will be held at the location designated in the notice. The president may grant permission for individual trustees to attend using audio or video conferencing.
- e. A trustee who fails to attend three (3) consecutive, duly called meetings, without an excuse acceptable to a majority whole of the number of trustees, shall be deemed to have resigned.
- f. In between regular meetings, the president, executive director, or executive committee may ask for select board business to be conducted via email or other computer mediated communication. In this case, the business will be described and electronically transmitted to the board of trustees with at least three (3) days, nor more than (8) days, notice. Votes taken electronically will be confirmed by vote at the next regular meeting of the board.

- g. An executive session of the full board can be requested by any board member. Executive Session is a meeting or a portion of a meeting convened to discuss confidential matters. Attendance is limited to voting members of the board; others are included at the discretion of the board president or designee if they have information to inform the discussion. A motion adopted by majority vote is required to enter into and end executive session. The reasons are stated in the motion, and only the subject matter referenced in the motion may be discussed during executive session. The motions to enter into and end executive session must include the time for each motion. All persons entitled to or invited to attend and all persons consulted or directed to prepare materials are expected to keep all matters relative to executive session confidential. Motions to enter into and end executive session are recorded as part of the regular board meeting minutes or as a separate document if executive session is held outside the regularly scheduled board meeting time by the board secretary or designee. Minutes of the proceedings of an executive session are not recorded. However, a written record of any official action taken, signed by the board president or designated session chair, is filed in the minute books of the board.

Section 6 Board Committees

- a. There shall be standing committees of the Board of Trustees. Minimally the Board will establish the Executive Committee, the Business & Finance Committee, and the Nominating Committee.
- b. Executive Committee. The total number of the executive committee shall not be less than five (5). It will be composed of the elected officers of the board of trustees with other trustee appointments such as the Executive Director.
 - 1. Duties: The Executive Committee, in intervals between meetings of the board of trustees, may transact such business of the Council as the trustees may authorize, except to make removals from office
- c. Business & Finance Committee. The Business and Finance Committee will consist of five members of the Board of Trustees including the Treasurer and the Executive Director who will both serve as Ex Officio.
 - 1. Duties: This committee will recommend to the full Board the Organization's annual operating and capital budgets, oversee the business practices and policies of the Organization, oversee long and short term investments, oversee the Organization's long term financial plan, and oversee all audits including meeting with the independent auditor * before and after the audit has occurred

* WNYLRC Definition: An independent auditor is any Certified Public Accountant performing the audit of the financial statements of the Organization who is not, nor is any member of his/her firm, a Trustee, and Officer, an employee or volunteer of the Organization or has a relative who is such an individual.

- d. Nominating Committee. The WNYLRC Board of Trustees President shall appoint a Nominating Committee, subject to board approval. The Nominating Committee shall consist of two members from the Board of Trustees and up to three representative members from the WNYLRC membership. The two Trustee members shall not be officers of the Board. One of the Trustees shall act as chair of the Nominating Committee.
 - 1. Duties: The Nominating Committee shall oversee the election of new Board officers including soliciting names of candidates for open Board positions from the Board and the membership, recommend a slate of nominees to the WNYLRC Board President and Executive Director, and reconvene as needed to recommend individuals to fill unexpected mid-term vacancies
- e. Adhoc Committees and Task Groups. The WNYLRC Board of Trustees may create additional committees or task groups as warranted by current fiscal and/or organizational needs by resolution adopted by the majority of the entire Board of Trustees and may designate other standing or ad hoc committees as needed and determine membership on these additional committees or task groups.
- f. The Board shall review all standing and adhoc committees annually.

Article III Membership

Section 1 Membership Categories

- a. Governing Membership. The following criteria will determine eligibility for Governing Membership in WNYLRC:
 1. Any degree-granting chartered institutions of higher education whose library meets current State Education Department (SED) standards or has submitted an appropriate five-year plan for the realization of those standards (see Commissioner's Regulations 90.5)
 2. Any public and school library systems meeting the current SED standards including New York State Educational Law and Commissioner's Regulations. Individual public and school libraries that are members of a school or public library system are considered an affiliate and are eligible for some WNYLRC benefits under this category but concede their voting rights to the system headquarters
 3. Any individual public libraries who are members of a public library system
 4. Any individual school libraries who are members of a school library system
 5. Special reference and research libraries in chartered educational agencies
 6. Special reference and research libraries in non-profit chartered organizations such as museums and historical societies
 7. Special reference and research libraries in private sector organizations such as correctional facilities
 8. Hospital libraries that meet the standards established by the regents in accordance with section §254
 9. Free Association libraries who are members of a public or school library system
 10. Indian (Native American) libraries who are members of a public or school library system
 11. Special non-profit organizations and private corporations providing serious reference and research library services in the WNYLRC service area meeting the following criteria:
 - i. a collection or repository of resources used to support the institution's primary clients and/or community OR;
 - ii. expenditure of more than $3,000.00 annually on print and/or electronic library materials
 12. Governing Members agree to the extent possible to freely and willingly share resources with other WNYLRC members onsite, onsite by appointment, and/or via interlibrary loan at no cost to the borrower
- b. Patron Membership
There are three levels of Patron Membership: Organizational, Personal, and Student. The Patron Membership is for those that do not meet the Governing Membership level. These members have limited benefits and are non-voting. School and public library systems are not eligible for Patron Membership since they are chartered institutions.
 1. Organizational –
 - i. Organizations that do not have a physical collection per se to resource share but may have expertise to share in the area of library

- and information science, or may work on behalf of WNYLRC members in other venues in support of libraries and/or resource sharing OR
 - ii. Organizations that have materials to share but do not fall within the criteria for governing membership
2. Personal – Retirees from the field of librarianship, individual librarians and library assistants who prefer to keep current with issues affecting the WNY library community
 3. Student – Students who are currently obtaining their MLS or graduates who have had their MLS less than 12 months

Section 2 Membership Eligibility Review

- a. All Governing Members and Patron - Organizational members shall be subject to review by the WNYLRC Board of Trustees as to eligibility at a regularly scheduled board meeting.
- b. Patron Members – Personal and Student members are approved by the WNYLRC Executive Director.

Section 3 Membership Meetings

- a. Annual Meeting. The president shall designate an annual meeting of the membership during the fall of each year.
- b. Additional meetings. Additional meetings of the membership may be called by the President or Board of Trustees. Members may call for an additional meeting via written petition to the president signed by ten (10) percent of the voting members.
- c. Other Meetings. Meetings to be held other than the annual meetings require a minimum of two (2) weeks notice to the members.
- d. All notices of meetings of the membership shall be in writing and delivered by the most appropriate method to all main contacts of Governing Members of WNYLRC. Notices via Listserv messages are also provided to other member types as needed.
- e. Issues that will be voted on will be presented at membership meetings and an opportunity for discussion of ballot issues will be provided. Each Governing member of WNYLRC shall have one (1) vote. Each member shall designate a representative who will attend membership meetings [i.e. WNYLRC Annual Meeting of the Membership] as a voting member. Voting may take place electronically after membership meetings to ensure a quorum.
- f. Voting privileges. Governing Members are eligible to vote. Patron Members shall not have voting privileges.
- g. Proxy Representation. Members participating in the voting process may designate, in writing to the Board of Trustees Secretary or presiding officer and/or the Executive Director, the name of a proxy representative empowered to act on behalf of the member during a designated meeting or a vote.
- h. Quorum. A simple majority of the voting members and/or their designated proxies shall constitute a quorum.
 1. The Board of Trustees Secretary or presiding officer shall establish the presence of a quorum prior to the conduct of business at a membership meeting or at the conclusion of electronic voting

2. In the event of a tie during a membership vote, the WNYLRC Board of Trustees Secretary can cast the deciding vote

Section 4 Membership Dues

- a. Dues. Each member will be assessed annual membership dues. The Board of Trustees shall recommend a dues scale for members.
- b. A majority of the voting members shall ratify proposed dues scales at a properly designated meeting of the membership.
- c. Dues for all categories are to be evaluated and subject to change every 3 years. See Section 3 for more information.
- d. The current dues schedule is available in a separate document titled Membership Dues Schedule. Dues must be paid within 60 days. Members in arrears may be dropped from WNYLRC at the next meeting of the Board of Trustees. Members dropped from WNYLRC membership and who wish to seek reinstatement shall be required to reapply for membership.
- e. Membership year runs January 1 – December 31.
 1. Governing Membership: Dues are based on Materials Budget Range. The Materials Budget is defined as a single library's materials budget that includes the purchasing of print, non-print (e.g. videos, CDs, DVDs, etc.), and electronic resources. Governing Members with more than one library can elect to pay by one of the following:
 - i. Organizations with more than one library may elect to pay dues for each library. In this case each library will be deemed a Governing Member, OR
 - ii. Organizations with more than one library may elect to pay for a single membership based on the combined materials budgets of all of its libraries. In this case, the organization will be deemed a Governing Member, with the organization having a single vote at the annual meeting, and its subsidiary members will enjoy all other benefits of Governing Membership, OR
 - ii. Organizations, such as library systems, with more than one library may elect to pay for a single membership based on its headquarters materials budget. In this case, the headquarters will be deemed a Governing Member, with the organization having a single vote at the annual meeting, and its subsidiary libraries and their staffs will be considered Affiliate Participants *

*WNYLRC Definition: Affiliate Participants are librarians and library support staff employed at individual schools and public library branches that have chosen not to pay dues directly to WNYLRC. Although they are eligible to join WNYLRC directly, affiliate members receive most of their services through their school or public library system which, in most cases, pays dues directly to WNYLRC but not on behalf of their member libraries and therefore their member libraries are not considered Governing Members.

2. Patron Membership dues are based on a flat rate.

Section 5 Membership Privileges
