WNY Library Assistants (WNYLA)

WNYLA Purpose Statement

- To professionally recognize library assistants employed in the Western New York area whatever their job title
- To further professional growth and to promote both personal and job enrichment.
- To promote communication and access to development opportunities among library assistants in the six county Western New York area and serve as a clearinghouse for relevant information
- To work with the Continuing Education Committee in meeting their charge.
- To correspond with other library assistants' groups on state New York State Library Assistants Association (NYSLAA) and national levels Library Support Staff Interests Round Table (LSSIRT) to advance the group's goals.
